STUDY GROUPS

Developing a greater understanding of life, truth, and spirituality are essential ingredients to group life. Through small groups at Atlee Community Church, people are able to explore the relevance and truth of the Bible in an environment that stresses life-change. Some groups explore truths by direct study of the Bible, while other groups examine truth from discussions and topical study.

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

The Christian life is incomplete without the expressions of action to back up convictions. In the same way, each small group is involved in ministry. These groups have been formed from a common interest the members share. Some groups will exist primarily for acts of service, while other groups will find actions arising as they apply what they learn.

Tuesday Group

Young Adults (ages 18-29) – “Becoming a Disciple: Learning to Love”

Building lasting relationships is a struggle for many people. Learning to Love will help you know Christ more deeply and it's the key to genuinely loving and relating to the people you live with, work with, and worship with.

Other Courses and Conferences at Atlee

Atlee Orientation - A brief meeting that introduces you to Atlee's purpose, vision and structure. The meeting is held on the first Sunday of every month after the service in the Seminar Room.

Membership Course - Everyone who is considering becoming a member of Atlee is asked to participate in our Membership Course. This course consists of two class periods, each lasting approximately two hours. While participation in the course is required for church membership, it in no way obligates you to join the church. Dates and times will be published in the program.

Short Courses - Offered throughout the year on various topics from "Highlights of the Bible" to "Contagious Christian". Call the office for current Short Courses being offered.

OTHER MINISTRIES AT ATLEE

Women's Ministry - Atlee's women's ministry, called Tapestry, is for women of all ages and provides opportunities to develop relationships with other women through a foundation of Biblical principles, practical applications, prayer and support. This group typically meets the first Monday evening of each month with a dinner meeting that features a theme for the evening. Contact Gayla Stout (752-7811) for more information.

Men's Ministry - Men of Atlee have organized in support of the church and the pastors. They provide prayer support and assistance in various tasks for the pastors and needy families. They also coordinate special programs for men throughout the year such as retreats and Saturday morning breakfasts. Contact Jim Remley (752-8322) for more information.

Singles Ministry - This group of singles (age 30 +) is just beginning. If you would like more information contact Candace Wolfe at 550-7427.

Young Adults Ministry - Young adults (ages 18-29) meet together in a Small Group (information listed under special interest groups). They also participate in planned social events. For information, contact Rebecca & Michael Roper at 290-0076.
